

Smithville's Richard D. Latham Cultural District

Artist of the Year Nomination Form: EXTENDED Deadline: April 26, 2021

The Nominee must be an individual or group of individuals who create/perform using the Arts in any media (such as writers, storytellers, musicians, performers of all genres, sculptors, fabric artists, other visual artists, and any other creative person/group).

Previous Awardees:

- 2015: Bill McGlaun (Sculptor)
- 2016: John Daniels, Jr. (Writer/Director)
- 2017: Jo Watts (Multi-Media Artist)
- 2018: Hannibal Lokumbe (Musician/Composer)
- 2019: Smithville High School Band
- 2020: Smithville Education Foundation (Patron—Patrons are provided different awards beginning in 2021)

1. Name of Artist or Group of Artists

2. Type of Artistic Work (Media)

3. Why do you think this Artist/Group deserves the award?

3A. Artistic Quality of Work

3B. Awards/Other Recognition by state/national/international organizations

3C. Broad reach of the Artist's/Group's work/contributions to the community in Smithville area

3D. Artist's/Group's involvement in community activities/organizations/programs.

3E. Uniqueness of Body of Work

Please return this form before 4/26/2021 by email to jstrube@ci.smithville.tx.us or bring/mail paper copies to the Smithville Public Library / 507 Main Street / Smithville, TX 78957. If the Library is closed, you can put the nomination in an envelop and drop it in the Book Drop around the back of the building.